“IF I WAS UNDENIABLY KENYON BORN IN 2004, AM I STILL KENYON BORN TODAY?” That is the question.

June 27, 2004

Kenyan-born Obama all set for US Senate

Kenyan-born US Senate hopeful, Barack Obama, appeared set to take over the Illinois Senate seat after his main rival, Jack Ryan, dropped out of the race on Friday night amid a furor over lurid sex club allegations.

The allegations that horrified fellow Republicans and caused his once-promising candidacy to implode in four short days have given Obama a clear lead as Republicans struggled to fetch an alternative. Ryan’s campaign began to crumble on Monday following the release of embarrassing records from his divorce.

In the records, his ex-wife, Boston Public actress Jeri Ryan, said her former husband took her to kinky sex clubs in Paris, New York and New Orleans.

Barrack Obama

“It’s clear to me that a vigorous debate on the issues most likely could not take place if I remain in the race,” Ryan, 44, said in a statement. “What would take place, rather, is a brutal, scorched-earth campaign – the kind of campaign that has turned off so many voters, the kind of politics I refuse to play.” Although Ryan disputed the allegations, saying he and his wife went to one ‘avant-garde’ club in Paris and left because they felt uncomfortable, lashed out at the media and said it was “truly outrageous” that the Chicago Tribune got a judge to unseal the records.

The Republican choice will become an instant underdog in the campaign for the seat of retiring Republican Senator Peter Fitzgerald, since Obama held a wide lead even before the scandal broke.

“I feel for him actually,” Obama told a Chicago TV station. “What he’s gone through over the last three days I think is something you wouldn’t wish on anybody.

“The Republican state committee must now choose a replacement for Ryan, who had won in the primaries against seven contenders. Its task is complicated by the fact that Obama holds a comfortable lead in the polls and is widely regarded as a rising Democratic star. The chairwoman of the Illinois Republican Party, Judy Topinka, said at a news conference, after Ryan withdrew, that Republicans would probably take several weeks to settle on a new candidate.

“Obviously, this is a bad week for our party and our state,” she said. As recently as Thursday, spokesmen for the Ryan campaign still insisted that Ryan would remain in the race. Ryan had defended himself saying, “There’s no breaking of any laws. There’s no breaking of any marriage laws. There’s no breaking of the Ten Commandments anywhere.” —AP

EDITORIAL COMMENT -

Without a doubt our president is a liar and there is no truth in him.

*Do you truly respect him?
Ask yourself how a man who makes promises he does not keep can be respected.*

I am neither a Republican nor a Democrat. I am a Christian; and, as such I am beholden to vote the will of my Father, who is God.

*Above all, “GOD HATES A LIAR.”
The word ‘hate’ as used in that context means ‘denies.’ Because God denies Obama, who lies each time he opens his mouth, Obama cannot be blessed.*

Because Obama lies, God denies him; therefore, under his leadership, America is being cursed and not blessed.

THERE, I’VE SAID IT. This paper wants Obama impeached and out of office.

AMERICA WILL NOT BE BLESSED AS LONG AS HE REMAINS THERE.

God forbid that we should wish that any harm come to Obama. Pray that God may cause him to come to his senses, repent of his lies, and begin to be truthful before it is too late.

NOW, it is no longer permissible for Christians to vote according to party lines. Pray for God’s guidance; then, mark your ballot accordingly. God’s will is where our survival rests.

IMPEACHMENT NOW MANDATORY

Did Barack Hussein Obama Commit A Felony By Offering Congressman Joe Sestak A “High Ranking” Cabinet Position To Drop Out Of His Pennsylvania Senate Race Against Senator Arlen Specter?

Let’s be clear. The commission of an actual felony is not actually required in order to impeach a sitting President, but if Sestak’s allegation is true... and if Barack Hussein Obama’s fingerprints are all over this offer... THAT’S A FELONY... and drawing up Articles of Impeachment against Barack Hussein Obama becomes a NECESSITY.

According to Judge Andrew Napolitano with FOX News: “Federal law makes it a felony to offer ‘anything of value’ to an official of the government in return for a decision in your favor by that official of the government; it is called bribery.”

And Congressman Darrell Issa is also pushing the matter. He’s called on Attorney General Eric Holder to appoint a Special Prosecutor to investigate the allegation; but Holder is essentially ignoring the request.

Days ago, Issa directly challenged Holder: “You don’t answer or apparently investigate. ... You’re not investigating whether it’s a false statement by a member of Congress or a crime by the White House. What are we to do?”

Well... we know what to do. With your help, we’re going to press the matter. We’re going to demand that Congress answer the question “what did Obama know and when did he know it” in regards to this alleged felony.

Deluge the offices of the Republican Leadership of the United States Senate and the United States House of Representatives with your faxes demanding an investigation into the Sestak allegation. Or, alternately, we can send your faxes to EACH AND EVERY Republican Member of the United States Senate and the United States House of Representatives. Let’s flood the offices of these elected officials with faxes and let them know, in no uncertain terms, that if this allegation is true and if Barack Obama had knowledge of this alleged Sestak offer, then Barack Obama is party to a felony and Articles of Impeachment MUST be drawn up immediately. Please make your voice

The Bible never goes out-of-date does it?!

I would love to give the Pastor of this predominantly black church in Virginia a hug and a high five. This guy is obviously a leader Perhaps we should each decide who our real leader is...It is amazing to see that very little has changed in 4,000 years.

RECENT VIRGINIA CHURCH SERVICE

Good morning, brothers and sisters; it's always a delight to see the pews crowded on Sunday morning, and so eager to get into God's Word. Turn with me in your Bibles, if you will to the 47th chapter of Genesis, we'll begin our reading at verse 13, and go through verse 27.

Brother Ray, would you stand and read that great passage for us? "Genesis 47:13-27 (King James Version)

13And there was no bread in all the land; for the famine was very sore, so that the land of Egypt and all the land of Canaan fainted by reason of the famine. 14And Joseph gathered up all the money that was found in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, for the corn which they bought: and Joseph brought the money into Pharaoh's house.

15And when money failed in the land of Egypt, and in the land of Canaan, all the Egyptians came unto Joseph, and said, Give us bread: for why should we die in thy presence? for the money faileth.

16And Joseph said, Give your cattle; and I will give you for your cattle, if money fail.

17And they brought their cattle unto Joseph: and Joseph gave them bread in exchange for horses, and for the flocks, and for the cattle of the herds, and for the asses: and he fed them with bread for all their cattle for that year. 18When that year was ended, they came unto him the second year, and said unto him, We will not hide it from my lord, how that our money is spent; my lord also hath our herds of cattle; there is not ought left in the sight of my lord, but our bodies, and our lands:

21And as for the people, he removed them to cities from one end of the borders of Egypt even to the other end thereof.

22Only the land of the priests bought he not; for the priests had a portion assigned them of Pharaoh, and did eat their portion which Pharaoh gave them: wherefore they sold not their lands.

23Then Joseph said unto the people, Behold, I have bought you this day and your land for Pharaoh: lo, here is seed for you, and ye shall sow the land. 24And it shall come to pass in the increase, that ye shall give the fifth part unto Pharaoh, and four parts shall be your own, for seed of the field, and for your food, and for them of your households, and for food for your little ones. 25And they said, Thou hast saved our lives: let us find grace in the sight of my lord, and we will be Pharaoh's servants.

26And Joseph made it a law over the land of Egypt unto this day, that Pharaoh should have the fifth part, except the land of the priests only, which became not Pharaoh's.

27And Israel dwelt in the land of Egypt, in the country of Goshen; and they had possessions therein, and grew, and multiplied exceedingly.

Thank you for that fine reading, Brother Ray... So we see that economic hard times fell upon Egypt, and the people turned to the government of Pharaoh to deal with this for them. And Pharaoh nationalized the grain harvest, and placed the grain in great storehouses that he had built. So the people brought their money to Pharaoh, like a great tax increase, and gave it all to him willingly in return for grain. And this went on until their money ran out, and they were hungry again.

So when they went to Pharaoh after that, they brought their livestock, their cattle, their horses, their sheep, and their donkey to barter for grain, and verse 17 says that only took them through the end of that year....

But the famine wasn't over, was it? So the next year, the people came before Pharaoh and admitted they had nothing left, except their land and their own lives. "There is nothing left in the sight of my lord but our bodies and our land. Why should we die before your eyes, both we and our land? Buy us and our land for food, and we with our land will be servants to Pharaoh." So they surrendered their homes, their land, and their real estate to Pharaoh's government, and then sold themselves into slavery to him, in return for grain. What can we learn from this, brothers and sisters?

That turning to the government instead of to God to be our provider in hard times only leads to slavery? Yes!

That's the only reason government wants to be our provider is to also become our master? Yes!

But look how that passage ends, brothers and sisters! Thus Israel settled in the land of Egypt, in the land of Goshen ... And they gained possessions in it, and were fruitful and multiplied greatly." God provided for His people, just as He always has! They didn't end up giving all their possessions to government, no, it says they gained possessions! But I also tell you a great truth today, and an ominous one... We see the same thing happening today - the government today wants to "share the wealth" "once again, to take it from us and redistribute it back to us. It wants to take control of healthcare, just as it has taken control of education, and ration it back to us, and when government rations it, then government decides who gets it, and how much, and what kind. And if we go along with it, and do it willingly, then we will wind up no differently than the people of Egypt did four thousand years ago - as slaves to the government, and as slaves to our leaders.

What Mr. Obama's government is doing now is no different from what Pharaoh's government did then, and it will end the same. And a lot of people like to call Mr. Obama a "Messiah," don't they? Is he a Messiah? A savior? Didn't the Egyptians say, after Pharaoh made them his slaves, "You have saved our lives; may it please my lord, we will be servants to Pharaoh"? Well, I tell you this - I know the Messiah; the Messiah is a friend of mine; and Mr. Obama is no Messiah!

No, brothers and sisters, if Mr. Obama is a character from the Bible, then he is Pharaoh.

Bow with me in prayer, if you will.

Lord, You alone are worthy to be served, and we rely on You, and You alone. We confess that the government is not our deliverer, and never rightly will be. We read in the eighth chapter of 1 Samuel, when Samuel warned the people of what a ruler would do, where it says "And in that day you will cry out because of your king, whom you have chosen for yourselves, but the LORD will not answer you in that day." And Lord, we acknowledge that day has come. We cry out to you because of the ruler that we have chosen for ourselves as a nation. Lord, we pray for this nation. We pray for revival, and we pray for deliverance from those who would be our masters.

Give us hearts to seek You and hands to serve You, and protect Your people from the atrocities of Pharaoh's government.

In God We Trust...

PICKING UP PLASTIC BOTTLES VERY DANGEROUS

Folks in the northeast are experiencing the horrors of a simple home made bomb recipe that any child can make from common household products and a plastic water bottle.

Some have been severely burned and/or lost fingers, eyes or hands.

Before you pick up plastic containers be certain that they contain no liquid.

A good idea might be to observe the old adage, "You can't touch that with a ten foot pole," and acquire an eleven foot pole with which to test the bottle. The slightest shake is reported to explode the bottles that contain the explosives.

545 PEOPLE

—By Charlie Reese

Politicians are the only people in the world who create problems and then campaign against them..

Have you ever wondered, if both the Democrats and the Republicans are against deficits, WHY do we have deficits?

Have you ever wondered, if all the politicians are against inflation and high taxes, WHY do we have inflation and high taxes?

You and I don't propose a federal budget. The president does.

You and I don't have the Constitutional authority to vote on appropriations. The House of Representatives does.

You and I don't write the tax code, Congress does.

You and I don't set fiscal policy, Congress does.

You and I don't control monetary policy, the Federal Reserve Bank does.

One hundred senators, 435 congressmen, one president, and nine Supreme Court justices equates to 545 human beings out of the 300 million are directly, legally, morally, and individually responsible for the domestic problems that plague this country.

I excluded the members of the Federal Reserve Board because that problem was created by the Congress. In 1913, Congress delegated its Constitutional duty to provide a sound currency to a federally chartered, but private, central bank.

I excluded all the special interests and lobbyists for a sound reason. They have no legal authority. They have no ability to coerce a senator, a congressman, or a president to do one cotton-picking thing. I don't care if they offer a politician $1 million dollars in cash. The politician has the power to accept or reject it. No matter what the lobbyist promises, it is the legislator's responsibility to determine how he votes.

Those 545 human beings spend much of their energy convincing you that what they did is not their fault. They cooperate in this common con regardless of party.

What separates a politician from a normal human being is an excessive amount of gall. No normal human being would have the gall of a Speaker, who stood up and criticized the President for creating deficits..... The president can only propose a budget. He cannot force the Congress to accept it.

The Constitution, which is the supreme law of the land, gives sole responsibility to the House of Representatives for originating and approving appropriations and taxes. Who is the speaker of the House? Nancy Pelosi. She is the leader of the majority party. She and fellow House members, not the president, can approve any budget they want. If the president vetoes it, they can pass it over his veto if they agree to.

It seems inconceivable to me that a nation of 300 million can not replace 545 people who stand convicted — by present facts — of incompetence and irresponsibility. I can't think of a single domestic problem that is not traceable directly to those 545 people. When you fully grasp the plain truth that 545 people exercise the power of the federal government, then it must follow that what exists is what they want to exist.

If the tax code is unfair, it's because they want it unfair.

If the budget is in the red, it's because they want it in the red ..

If the Army & Marines are in IRAQ , it's because they want them in IRAQ

If they do not receive social security but are on an elite retirement plan not available to the people, it's because they want it that way.

There are no insoluble government problems.

Do not let these 545 people shift the blame to bureaucrats, whom they hire and whose jobs they can abolish; to lobbyists, whose gifts and advice they can reject; to regulators, to whom they give the power to regulate and from whom they can take this power. Above all, do not let them con you into the belief that there exists disembodied mystical forces like "the economy," "inflation," or "politics" that prevent them from doing what they take an oath to do.

Those 545 people, and they alone, are responsible.

They, and they alone, have the power..

They, and they alone, should be held accountable by the people who are their bosses. Provided the voters have the gumption to manage their own employees...

We should vote all of them out of office and clean up their mess!

What in the hell happened?

Can you spell 'politicians?'

GO AHEAD - - - BE AN AMERICAN!!!

Well, here you have it. The sentiment of the illegals in Arizona can be seen clearly in the above photograph. Jobs, benefits, education, welfare and any other benefit meant only for our citizens.

Well, if I were in Arizona, my sign would read, "Go home, NOW!"

'In the first place, we should insist that if the immigrant who comes here in good faith becomes an American and assimilates himself to us, he shall be treated on an exact equality with everyone else, for it is an outrage to discriminate against any such man because of creed, or birthplace, or origin. But this is predicated upon the person's becoming in every facet an American, and nothing but an American...There can be no divided allegiance here. Any man who says he is an American, but something else also, isn't an American at all. We have room for but one flag, the American flag... We have room for but one language here, and that is the English language And we have room for but one sole loyalty and that is a loyalty to the American people.'

'Excuse me, Are you Jesus?'

A few years ago a group of salesmen went to a regional sales convention in Chicago. They had assured their wives that they would be home in plenty of time for Friday night's dinner. In their rush, with tickets and briefcases, one of these salesmen inadvertently kicked over a table which held a display of apples. Apples flew everywhere. Without stopping or looking back, they all managed to reach the plane in time for their nearly missed boarding.

ALL BUT ONE !!! He paused, took a deep breath, and experienced a twinge of compassion for the girl whose apple stand had been overturned.

He told his buddies to go on without him, waved good-bye, told one of them to call his wife when they arrived at their home destination and explain his taking a later flight. Then he returned to the terminal where the apples were all over the terminal floor.

He was glad he did. The 16 year old girl was totally blind! She was softly crying, tears running down her cheeks in frustration, and at the same time helplessly groping for her spilled produce as the crowd swirled about her, no one stopping and no one to care for her plight.

The salesman knelt on the floor with her, gathered up the apples, put them back on the table and helped organize her display. As he did this, he noticed that many of them had become battered and bruised; these he set aside in another basket.

When he had finished, he pulled out his wallet and said to the girl, 'Here, please take this $40 for the damage we did. Are you okay?' She nodded through her tears.

He continued on with, 'I hope we didn't spoil your day too badly.'

As the salesman started to walk away, the bewildered blind girl called out to him, 'Mister...' He paused and turned to look back into those blind eyes. She continued, 'Are you Jesus?'

He stopped in mid-stride, and he wondered. Then slowly he made his way to catch the later flight with that question burning and bouncing about in his soul: 'Are you Jesus?'

Do people mistake you for Jesus?

That's our Destiny, is it not? To be so much like Jesus that people cannot tell the difference as we live and interact with a world that is blind to His love, life and grace. If we claim to know Him, we should live, walk and act as He would.

Knowing Him is more than simply quoting Scripture and going to church. It's actually living the Word as life unfolds day to day.

You are the apple of His eye even though we, too, have been bruised by a fall. He stopped what He was doing and picked you and me up on a hill called Calvary and paid in full for our damaged fruit.

Lifescopes says, "Though God hates sin, He shows His mercy to those who turn from it!"

Continued from yesterday. Now the Lord had arranged for a great fish to swallow Jonah. And Jonah was inside the fish three days and three nights. Then Jonah prayed to the Lord his God from inside the fish: "In my great trouble I cried to the Lord and He answered me; from the depths of death I called, and Lord, You heard me! You threw me into the ocean depths; I sank down into the floods of waters and was covered by Your wild and stormy waves . . . When my life had almost gone, I remembered the Lord. Lord, I prayed to You. And You heard my prayers in Your Holy Temple. People who worship useless idols give up their loyalty to You. Lord, I will praise and thank You while I give sacrifices to You. I will make promises to You. And I will do what I promise. Salvation comes from the Lord!" Then the Lord spoke to the fish. And the fish spit Jonah out of its stomach onto the dry land. Then the Lord spoke His word to Jonah again. The Lord said, "Get up. Go to the great city, Nineveh. Preach against it what I tell you."

So Jonah obeyed the Lord. He got up and went to Nineveh. It was a very large city. It took a person three days just to walk across it. But the very first day when Jonah entered the city and began to preach, the people repented. Jonah shouted to the crowds that gathered around him, "Forty days from now Nineveh will be destroyed!"

And they believed him and declared a fast; from the king on down, everyone put on sackcloth - the rough, coarse garments worn at times of mourning. For when the king of Nineveh heard what Jonah was saying, he stepped down from his throne and laid aside his royal robes and put on sackcloth and sat in ashes.

And the king and his nobles sent this message throughout the city: "Let no one, not even the animals, eat anything at all, nor even drink any water. Everyone must wear sackcloth and cry mightily to God, and let everyone turn from his evil ways, from his violence and robbing. Who can tell? Perhaps even yet God will decide to let us live, and will hold back His fierce anger from destroying us." And when God saw that they had put a stop to their evil ways, He abandoned His plan to destroy them, and didn't carry it through.

"Making Learning Exciting Through Expectation Of Success!"

THE COST OF A MIRACLE

JUST 'ONE DOLLAR ELEVEN CENTS'

A little girl went To her bedroom and pulled a glass jelly jar from its hiding place in the closet. She poured the change out on the floor and counted it carefully. Three Times, even.. The total had to be exactly perfect... No chance here for mistakes..

Carefully placing the coins back in the jar and twisting on the cap, she Slipped out the back door and made her way 6 blocks to Rexall's Drug Store with The big red Indian Chief sign above the door.

She waited patiently for The pharmacist to give her some attention, but he was too busy at this moment.

Tess twisted her feet to make a scuffing noise. Nothing. She cleared her throat With the most disgusting sound she could muster. No good. Finally she took a Quarter from her jar and banged it on the glass counter..

That did it! 'And what do you want?' the pharmacist asked in an annoyed tone of Voice. I'm talking to my brother from Chicago whom I haven't seen in ages,' he Said without waiting for a reply to his question.

'Well, I want to talk To you about my brother,' Tess answered back in the same annoyed tone.. 'He's Really, really sick....and I want to buy a miracle.'

'I beg your pardon?' Said the pharmacist.

'His name is Andrew and he has something bad Growing inside his head and my Daddy says only a miracle can save him now. So how Much does a miracle cost?'

'We don't sell miracles here, little girl. I'm sorry but I can't help you,' the pharmacist said, softening a little.

'Listen, I have the money to pay for it. If it isn't enough, I will get The rest. Just tell me how much it costs.'

The pharmacist's brother was A well dressed man. He stooped down and asked the little girl, 'What kind of a Miracle does your brother need?'

'I don't know,' Tess replied with her Eyes welling up. I just know he's really sick and Mommy says he needs an Operation. But my Daddy can't pay for it, so I want to use my money..'

'How much do you have?' asked the man from Chicago .

'One dollar And eleven cents,' Tess answered barely audible. 'And it's all the money I have, but I can get some more if I need to.'

'Well, what a Coincidence,' smiled the man. 'A dollar and eleven cents—the exact price of a Miracle for little brothers.' He took her money in one hand and with The other hand he grasped her mitten and said 'Take me to where you live. I want To see your brother and meet your parents. Let's see if I have the miracle you need.'

That well-dressed man was Dr. Carlton Armstrong, a surgeon, Specializing in neuro-surgery. The operation was completed free of charge and it Wasn't long until Andrew was home again and doing well.

Mom and Dad were Happily talking about the chain of events that had led them to this place. 'That surgery,' her Mom whispered.. 'was a real miracle. I wonder how Much it would have cost?'

Tess smiled. She knew exactly how much a Miracle cost...one dollar and eleven cents...plus the faith of a little child.

In our lives, we never know how many miracles we will need. A Miracle is not the suspension of natural law, but the operation of a higher law.

"He is touched with the feeling of our infirmities."

Rev. John Powell, a professor at Loyola University in Chicago writes about Tommy, a student in his Theology of Faith class.

Some twelve years ago, I stood watching my university students file into the classroom for our first session in the Theology of Faith. That was the day I first saw Tommy. My eyes and my mind both blinked. He was combing his long flaxen hair, which hung six inches below his shoulders. It was the first time I had ever seen a boy with hair that long.

I guess it was just coming into fashion then.

I know in my mind that it isn't what's on your head but what's in it that counts; but on that day, I was unprepared and my emotions flipped I immediately filed Tommy under "S" for strange... very strange.

Tommy turned out to be the "atheist in residence" in my Theology of Faith course. He constantly objected to, smirked at, or whined about the possibility of an unconditionally loving Father/God. We lived with each other in relative peace for one semester, although I admit he was for me at times a serious pain in the back pew.

When he came up at the end of the course to turn in his final exam, he asked in a cynical tone, "Do you think I'll ever find God?"

I decided instantly on a little shock therapy. "No!" I said very emphatically.

"Why not?," he responded, "I thought that was the product you were pushing."

I let him get five steps from the classroom door and then called out, "Tommy! I don't think you'll ever find Him, but I am absolutely certain that He will find you!"

He shrugged a little and left my class and my life.

I felt slightly disappointed at the thought that he had missed my clever line: "He will find you!" At least I thought it was clever.

Later, I heard that Tommy had graduated and I was duly grateful. Then a sad report came. I heard that Tommy had terminal cancer. Before I could search him out, he came to see me.

When he walked into my office, his body was very badly wasted and the long hair had all fallen out as a result of chemotherapy. But his eyes were bright and his voice was firm, for the first time, I believe.

"Tommy, I've thought about you so often—I hear you are sick", I blurted out.

"Oh, yes, very sick. I have cancer in both lungs. It's a matter of weeks."

"Can you talk about it, Tom?," I asked.

"Sure, what would you like to know?," he replied.

"What's it like to be only twenty-four and dying?," I asked.

"Well, it could be worse.", he replied.

"Like what?," I asked.

"Well, like being fifty and having no values or ideals; like being fifty and thinking that booze, seducing women, and making money are the real biggies' in life.", he replied.

I began to look through my mental file cabinet under 'S' where I had filed Tommy as strange. It seems as though everybody I try to reject by classification, God sends back into my life to educate me.

"But what I really came to see you about", Tom said, "is something you said to me on the last day of class."

(He remembered!)

He continued, "I asked you if you thought I would ever find God and you said, 'No!' which surprised me. Then you said, 'But He will find you.'

I thought about that a lot, even though my search for God was hardly intense at that time."

(My clever line. He thought about that a lot!)

"With healing in His Wings." Mal. 4:2

But when the doctors removed a lump from my groin and told me that it was malignant, that's when I got serious about locating God. And when the malignancy spread into my vital organs, I really began banging bloody fists against the bronze doors of heaven.

But God did not come out. In fact, nothing happened. Did you ever try anything for a long time with great effort and with no success? You get psychologically glugged, fed up with trying. And then you quit."

"Well, one day I woke up, and instead of throwing a few more futile appeals over that high brick wall to a God who may be or may not be there, I just quit.. I decided that I didn't really care about God, about an after life, or anything like that. I decided to spend what time I had left doing something more profitable.

I thought about you and your class and I remembered something else you had said:" "The essential sadness is to go through life without loving. But it would be almost equally sad to go through life and leave this world without ever telling those you loved that you had loved them."

"So, I began with the hardest one, my Dad. He was reading the newspaper when I approached him.

"Dad."

"Yes, what?," he asked without lowering the newspaper.

"Dad, I would like to talk with you."

"Well, talk."

"I mean... It's really important".

The newspaper came down three slow inches.

"What is it?'"

"Dad, I love you—I just wanted you to know that." Tom smiled at me and said it with obvious satisfaction, as though he felt a warm and secret joy flowing inside of him.

"The newspaper fluttered to the floor. Then my father did two things I could never remember him ever doing before. He cried and he hugged me. We talked all night, even though he had to go to work the next morning. It felt so good to be close to my father, to see his tears, to feel his hug, to hear him say that he loved me."

"It was easier with my mother and little brother. They cried with me, too, and we hugged each other, and started saying real nice things to each other. We shared the things we had been keeping secret for somany years. I was only sorry about one thing — that I had waited so long. Here I was, just beginning to open up to all the people I had actually been close to."

"Then, one day I turned around and God was there. He didn't come to me when I pleaded with Him. I guess I was like an animal trainer holding out a hoop:" 'C'mon, jump through. C'mon, I'll give You three days, three weeks.'

"Apparently God does things in His own way and at His own hour. But the important thing is that He was there. He found me! You were right. He found me even after I stopped looking for Him."

"Tommy", I practically gasped: "I think you are saying something very important and much more universal than you realize. To me, at least, you are saying that the surest way to find God is not to make Him a private possession, a problem solver, or an instant consolation in time of need, but rather by opening to love. You know, the Apostle John said that. He heard now. Our elected officials won't have the back-bone to go it alone. If they do not hear from you, our elected officials will lack the courage to act. Only you can give them the courage to do the right thing... and no man, particularly Barack Hussein Obama, is above the law.

Here's The Background.

Back in February, Sestak told Larry Kane, a local talk-show host, that the White House dangled a "high ranking" job in front of him to convince him to drop his primary challenge against incumbent Arlen Specter.

Initially, the Obama White House denied the accusation. According to a FOX News report: "White House official told FOX News that Sestak is expected to 'clarify' the allegation."

But Sestak didn't take the hint... he didn't "clarify" the accusation.

He stood by his statement and told FOX News: "I was asked a direct question yesterday and I answered it honestly."

The Mainstream Media dropped the matter. But Darrell Issa called on Eric Holder to appoint a Special Prosecutor to investigate the allegation.

And recently, just prior to the Pennsylvania primary, Issa confronted Holder directly... but Holder REFUSED to comment on the matter.

When Issa questioned Holder on why he had not responded to his request for a Special Prosecutor; Holder simply said that he thought he had responded to the request and offered his apologies.

Is it possible that Sestak lied... or that he was simply mistaken?

It seems unlikely as White House Press Secretary Robert Gibbs issued the following carefully guarded statement to the press: "I'm told whatever conversations have been had are not problematic" and Gibbs added that the matter was "in the past."

Stonewalling... obstruction... but it's clear by Gibbs statement that someone made Sestak an offer.

Keeping in mind that only Barack Hussein Obama has the authority to appoint an individual to his own cabinet, the only question that remains is; what did Obama know and when did he know it. The American people deserve an answer.

As an informed American, you already know that Barack Hussein Obama deserves impeachment.

Article II, Section 4 of the Constitution reads: "The President, Vice President and all civil officers of the United States, shall be removed from office on impeachment for, and conviction of, treason, bribery, or other high crimes and misdemeanors."

If Obama had knowledge of this Sestak offer, then we could add the charge of "bribery" to the "high crimes and misdemeanors" he has already committed while in office.

Remember the words of Judge Napolitano: "Federal law makes it a felony to offer 'anything of value' to an official of the government in return for a decision in your favor by that official of the government; it is called bribery."

Is a "high ranking" cabinet position a thing of value? If so, it could be easily argued that we have a DUTY to Impeach Barack Hussein Obama.

How long must we wait... how long should we sit back and permit Barack Hussein Obama to rip apart the fabric of this country before we take action?

The question is not whether we should impeach Barack Hussein Obama. Rather, the question is, can we impeach Barack Hussein Obama before it is too late? It's your choice. Demand impeachment today.

Augustin Cebada, Brown Berets; "Go back to Boston! Go back to Plymouth Rock, Pilgrims! Get out! We are the future. You are old and tired. Go on. We have beaten you. Leave like beaten rats. You old white people. It is your duty to die . . . Through love of having children, we are going to take over."

Richard Alatorre, Los Angeles City Council. "They're afraid we're going to take over the governmental institutions and other institutions. They're right. We will take them over . . . We are here to stay."

Excelsior, the national newspaper of Mexico, "The American Southwest seems to be slowly returning to the jurisdiction of Mexico without firing a single shot."

Professor Jose Angel Gutierrez, University of Texas; "We have an aging white America. They are not making babies. They are dying. The explosion is in our population . . . I love it. They are shitting in their pants with fear. I love it."

Art Torres, Chairman of the California Democratic Party, "Remember 187—proposition to deny taxpayer funds for services to non-citizens—was the last gasp of white America in California."

Gloria Molina, Los Angeles County Supervisor, "We are politicizing every single one of these new citizens that are becoming citizens of this country . . . I gotta tell you that a lot of people are saying, 'I'm going to go out there and vote because I want to pay them back.'"

Mario Obledo, California Coalition of Hispanic Organizations and California State Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare under Governor Jerry Brown, also awarded the Presidential Medal of Freedom by President Bill Clinton, "California is going to be a Hispanic state. Anyone who doesn't like it should leave."

Jose Pescador Osuna, Mexican Consul General, "We are practicing 'La Reconquista' in California."

Professor Fernando Guerra, Loyola Marymount University; "We need to avoid a white backlash by using codes understood by Latinos . . ."

Are these just the words of a few extremists? Consider that we could fill up many pages with such quotes. Also, consider that these are mainstream Mexican leaders.

THE U.S. VS MEXICO

In 1998, the U.S. and Mexican soccer teams met at the Los Angeles Coliseum. The crowd was overwhelmingly pro-Mexican even though most lived in this country. They booed during the National Anthem and U.S. flags were held upside down. As the match progressed, supporters of the U.S. team were insulted,

“A lying tongue hates those it hurts, and a flattering mouth works ruin.” -- Proverbs 26:28

There seems to be an avalanche of dishonesty across all sectors of our society today. And when kids see dishonesty as a strategy to get ahead — as is the focus of most reality TV shows, or as a way to gain power — as it is in the political realm, it's natural for them to emulate that. Sadly, it's hard to find an unimpeachably honest public figure or champion of honesty today.

Kids lie for the same reasons that adults lie...to lift themselves up, to get ahead, to destroy their competition, or to protect themselves and avoid consequences. When they spend hours daily making up puffed-up stories about themselves on the Internet, or using cruel dishonesty to tear down their enemies or competition, the lines between the virtual world and the real world begin to fade. Kids being dishonest in a fantasy world are likely to bring that over to the real world as well.

Confronting Dishonesty

My friend Tim Kimmel says, “Parents should never be surprised that their children lied to them, because they gave birth to liars. But, you cannot allow these to go on, because they will destroy somebody.”

It's best to deal with dishonesty earlier in life, since it tends to grow incrementally with each lie that isn't caught. Never tolerate dishonesty when they are still young, and it will be less of a problem when they are older. But if those days are come and gone, how does a parent deal with dishonesty in the teen years? If you feel that your teen is lying, or if you have evidence of it, don't attack them head-on by calling them a “liar.” They'll simply lie more to protect themselves, which only compounds the problem. The better approach is to say something like, “I heard or saw this...” or “Someone said that you did this...so, why don't we get together tomorrow to talk about it.” Give them time to think about it and an opportunity to come forward with the truth without feeling attacked.

The first step in your meeting the next day is to let your teen know why you are confronting their dishonesty. It is that you love them and want to help them avoid bigger problems later in life. Demonstrate your respect for them by your demeanor, assuring them that you will move toward them in times of difficulty and struggle, not away from them. Tell them that you can't possibly love them any more than you do, and you'll never love them any less, not even when they are at their worst.

Then, briefly describe the dishonest behavior. Tell them how you feel that dishonesty is counter to your values and how destructive it can be to their future. Affirm that you know they can do better. Make them right the wrong, including confessing to whomever was wronged. And finally, enforce appropriate consequences and make sure they know that you will be on the lookout for any form of dishonesty in the future.

Unfortunately, some kids may like the idea that they have become a pretty good liar, so you don't want to build that up in them. Rather, you want to begin to chip away at their ability to get away with lying, so they see the futility of it. Make sure as much as you can that they never benefit from lying.

Don't forget that requiring your teen to confess their lie, or their cheating or their stealing, to appropriate parties or authorities, and facing the external consequences for that, is often more of a deterrent than any consequence you can levy. So, tell your teen, “If you are ever caught, not only will you pay consequences at home, but you'll be required to set the wrong right with whomever you have wronged.”

Look for Deeper Issues

Most teenagers from good homes know that it is wrong to lie, cheat or steal (all forms of dishonesty), so if they've suddenly become dishonest, look for deeper issues that may be troubling them. Peer through the smokescreen. Look for reasons why your teen is suddenly living a double life, including the possibility that drugs or even sexual abuse are involved. Nothing can justify dishonesty, but other factors may be why it is happening now and reveal how to correct it.

Some kids may fear that if they told their parent what is really going on in their life, they would lose the relationship. So, lies build upon lies and dishonesty envelopes them. In an immature way, they are really trying to protect the relationship by being untruthful. Sounds wacky, but it can happen if your relationship is already rocky and the truth will put it over the edge.

Performance-based parents can also create an environment where lying or cheating is a form of survival for the teen. Perhaps the parent is demanding more than their teen can bear. So, to please their parents, they cheat on tests or plagiarize reports to get better grades, or take performance-enhancing drugs to perform better on the sports team, or go on dangerous diets to improve their appearance.

Laura, a girl who came to live with us at Heartlight, tried to keep up the perfect teen routine for her perfectionistic parents, but she suddenly snapped and took up lying and doing whatever she pleased. I noticed as we attempted to help Laura that her parents seemed to criticize our every effort as well as hers. I discovered just how difficult it was to please them, and I could see that Laura's dishonesty was rooted in her feelings of frustration. If you find yourself criticizing your teen's every move, lighten up. Don't drive your teen to dishonesty just to please you.

Setting a Good Example

So, where do kids learn integrity? From you! Good or bad habits nearly always rub off on your children. If you've been dishonest, don't be surprised to also see it in your teen. Try to set things straight by first apologizing to your kids and show them how you're working to be more honest. Teens need their parents to speak the truth, at all times. They know when you aren't being truthful, so determine to be a loving, truthful parent, no matter how difficult the telling becomes and that will be a powerful legacy of integrity to leave your children.

If dishonesty has become a way of life with your teen, it won't go away with the mere passage of time. It needs to be confronted or it will reappear at significant stress points in their life, and that can land them in real trouble. So, deal immediately with every instance of dishonesty in your kids today, and you'll be avoiding bigger problems tomorrow. - Mark

Did you know that immigrants from Mexico and other non-European countries can come to this country and get preferences in jobs, education, and government contracts? It's called affirmative action or racial privilege. The Emperor of Japan or the President of Mexico could migrate here and immediately be eligible for special rights unavailable for Americans of European descent. Recently, a vote was taken in the U.S. Congress to end this practice. It was defeated. Every single Democratic senator except Ernest Hollings voted to maintain special privileges for Hispanic, Asian and African immigrants. They were joined by thirteen Republicans. Bill Clinton and Al Gore have repeatedly stated that they believe that massive immigration from countries like Mexico is good. They have also backed special privileges for these immigrants.

Corporate America has signed on to the idea that minorities and third world immigrants should get special, privileged status. Some examples are Exxon, Texaco, Merrill Lynch, Boeing, Paine Weber, Starbucks and many more.

DID YOU KNOW?:

Did you know that Mexico regularly intercedes on the side of the defense in criminal cases involving Mexican nationals? Did you know that Mexico has NEVER extradited a Mexican national accused of murder in the U.S. in spite of agreements to do so? According to the L.A. Times, Orange County, California is home to 275 gangs with 17,000 members; 98% of which are Mexican and Asian. How's your county doing?

According to a New York Times article dated May 19, 1994, 20 years after the great influx of legal immigrants from Southeast Asia, 30% are still on welfare compared to 8% of households nationwide. A Wall Street Journal editorial dated December 5, 1994 quotes law enforcement officials as stating that Asian mobsters are the "greatest criminal challenge the country faces." Not bad for a group that is still under 5% of the population.

Is education important to you? Here are the words of a teacher who spent over 20 years in the Los Angeles School system. "Imagine teachers in classes containing 30-40 students of widely varying attention spans and motivation, many of whom aren't fluent in English. Educators seek learning materials likely to reach the majority of students and that means fewer words and math problems and more pictures and multicultural references."

WHEN I WAS YOUNG:

When I was young, I remember hearing about the immigrants that came through Ellis Island. They wanted to learn English. They wanted to breathe free. They wanted to become Americans. Now too many immigrants come here with demands. They demand to be taught in their own language. They demand special privileges—affirmative action. They demand ethnic studies that glorify their culture.

OBAMA - ANT & GRASSHOPPER

The ant works hard in the withering heat and the rain all summer long, building his house and laying up supplies for the winter.

The grasshopper thinks the ant is a fool and laughs and dances and plays the summer away.

Come winter, the shivering grasshopper calls a press conference and demands to know why the ant should be allowed to be warm and well fed while he is cold and starving.

CBS, NBC, PBS, CNN, and ABC show up to provide pictures of the shivering grasshopper next to a video of the ant in his comfortable home with a table filled with food.

America is stunned by the sharp contrast.

How can this be, that in a country of such wealth, this poor grasshopper is allowed to suffer so?

Kermit the Frog appears on Oprah with the grasshopper and everybody cries when they sing, 'It's Not Easy Being Green...'

ACORN stages a demonstration in front of the ant's house where the news stations film the group singing, "We shall overcome."

Then Rev. Jeremiah Wright has the group kneel down to pray to God for the grasshopper's sake.

President Obama condemns the ant and blames

Nancy Pelosi & Harry Reid exclaim in an interview with Larry King that the ant has gotten rich off the back of the grasshopper, and both call for an immediate tax hike on the ant to make him pay his fair share.

Finally, the EEOC drafts the Economic Equity & Anti-Grasshopper Act retroactive to the beginning of the summer.

The ant is fined for failing to hire a proportionate number of green bugs and, having nothing left to pay his retroactive taxes, his home is confiscated by the Government Green Czar and given to the grasshopper.

The story ends as we see the grasshopper and his free-loading friends finishing up the last bits of the ant's food while the government house he is in, which, as you recall, just happens to be the ant's old house, crumbles around them because the grasshopper doesn't maintain it.

The ant has disappeared in the snow, never to be seen again.

The grasshopper is found dead in a drug related incident, and the house, now abandoned, is taken over by a gang of spiders who terrorize the ramshackle, once prosperous and once peaceful, neighborhood.

The entire Nation collapses bringing the rest of the free world with it.

Would you come into my present Theology of Faith course and tell them what you have just told me? If I told them the same thing it wouldn't be half as effective as if you were to tell it."

Ooh I was ready for you, but I don't know if I'm ready for your class."

"Tom, think about it If and when you are ready, give me a call."

In a few days, Tom called, said he was ready for the class, that he wanted to do that for God and for me. So we scheduled a date. However, he never made it.

He had another appointment, far more important than the one with me and my class. Of course, his life was not really ended by his death, only changed. He made the great step from faith into vision. He found a life far more beautiful than the eye of man has ever seen or the ear of man has ever heard or the mind of man has ever imagined.

Before he died, we talked one last time. "I'm not going to make it to your class", he said.

"I know, Tom."

"Will you tell them for me? Will you tell the whole world for me?"

"I will, Tom. I'll tell them. I'll do my best."

So, to all of you who have been kind enough to read this simple story about God's love, thank you for listening. And to you, Tommy, somewhere in the sunlit, verdant hills of heaven — I told them as best I could.

Meditation & Health

When we are free from worries and discomfort, we can experience true happiness in our lives. When happiness is missing, when our minds are not at peace, then it becomes difficult to enjoy life. Finding our inner peace is vital for survival. Learning meditation and relaxation techniques can enhance your life. Meditation has been practiced for hundreds of years and involves a wide spectrum of goals to those practicing this higher state of being. When you achieve a relaxed state, you are able to heal yourself from many of the emotional, physical and psychological issues that you carry inside of your mind and body.

Many of us live such hectic lives. The amount of stress that some people carry around in them can be overwhelming. They are so busy running in circles that they can create the type of stressors that result in illness along with frustration and depression. When my clients tell me that they are too busy to slow down, I encourage them to learn how to relax. Meditation and relaxation techniques can actually help them calm their mind and focus on what's important in life. Organizing and prioritizing even becomes easier.

We have in our minds a lifetime of positive and negative thoughts that can at times overtake our feelings and emotions. Meditation is useful for everyone from children to adults. Living with a clear mind and positive thoughts can create the balance we all need to reach our health and personal goals in life. When you train your mind the right way, you can actually experience positive thoughts for a huge part of your day, every day, even under the most stressful situations.

There are several reasons that a person should learn to meditate, here are just a few. 1) Because it is a positive experience. 2) It helps release feel good hormones. 3) Meditation is healthy and can be a part of your integrative health experience. 4) Everyone wants our brains and thought processes to function well, meditation can assist with this. 5) Meditation allows the body the inner rest it needs to regenerate healthy cells within our systems. 6) Recent studies show that meditation can help slow the aging process down starting with the brain.

The challenge that most people have is learning how to shut down their thought processes so that they feel like they have "meditated". Our life goal should be to strive for inner peace and the best health possible. Taking a class in meditation can make a world of difference. When you learn to have mental equilibrium you will find another way to balance your health and life. There are well over a dozen different types of meditations. If you are interested in learning how to meditate and really relax, call or email Susan. Summer classes will be offered soon and fill up quickly!

PLEASE HELP

THE BONE YARD

This was written by a Mexican who is now a naturalized US Citizen, and I think it's a great explanation of the illegal immigration issue.

Here is the quote:

"If you had tickets to a sports event, concert, Disneyland, or for an airline flight, and when you got to your assigned seat you found someone else was in that seat, what would you do? You would call for a person in charge of ticket checking and have the person in your seat removed. You would properly be asked to show your ticket, and you would gladly and proudly do so, for you have bought and paid for that seat. The person in your seat would also be asked for a ticket, which they would not be able to produce. They would be called "gate crashers" and they would properly be removed.

Now in this huge stadium called the USA we have had millions of gate crashers. We have been asking security to check for tickets and remove the gate crashers. We have been asking security to have better controls in checking at the door. We have asked security to lock the back doors. Security has failed us. They are still looking the other way. They are afraid to ask to see the tickets. Many people say there is unlimited seating, and whether there is or not, no one should be allowed in for free while the rest of us pay full price!

In "section AZ", of "Stadium USA", we have had enough of the failures of Security. We have decided to do our own ticket checking, and properly remove those who do not have tickets. Now it seems very strange to me that so many people in the other 49 "sections", and even many in our own "section" do not want tickets checked, or even to be asked to show their ticket! Even the head of Security is chastising us, while not doing his own job which he has sworn to do.

My own ticket has been bought and paid for, so I am proudly going to show it when asked to do so. I have a right to my seat, and I want the gate crashers to be asked to show their tickets too. The only reason that I can imagine anyone objecting to being asked for their ticket is that they are in favor of gate crashing, and all of the illegal activities that go with it, such as drug smuggling, gang wars, murder, human smuggling for profit, and many more illegal and inhumane acts that we are trying to prevent with our new legislation. Is that what I am hearing from all of the protestors such as Phoenix Mayor Gordon, US Rep. Grijalva, even President Obama? If you are not in favor of showing tickets, (proof of citizenship, passport, green card, or other legal document) when asked, as I would do proudly, then you must be condoning those illegal activities."

Written by a US Citizen, Globe, Arizona.

Since Obama has never shown his ticket I guess he feels obligated to not ask others to show theirs.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

You should consider changing the name of your paper to "The Spokesman for the extreme right wing."

Your paper is the epitome of 'Republican arrogance, a factor that helped defeat many republican incumbents in the last election.

It is my hope that it will again in the next two elections.

Thank You,
Wm. R. Moyers

HALLELUJAH! A liberal has finally deigned to respond in writing. I had begun to think that no liberal could actually write.

When I respond to the 6 to 8 phone calls per day informing me of what trash I am publishing by earnestly pleading with each caller to respond in writing, it is to no avail.

THANK YOU MR. MOYERS, for renewing my faith that a few liberals out there actually can write!

NEW IMMIGRATION LAW

Mexicans here and in Mexico are rather upset by the recent enactment of stricter anti-illegal alien laws by Arizona's governor.

In light of the following, that position demonstrates the typical double standard used by race-hustlers and assorted something-for-nothings. Read on, and read it to the end.

New Immigration Laws: Read to the bottom or you will miss the message...

1 There will be no special bilingual programs in the schools.

2. All ballots will be in this nation's language.

3. All government business will be conducted in our language.

4. Non-residents will NOT have the right to vote no matter how long they are here.

5. Non-citizens will NEVER be able to hold political office

6 Foreigners will not be a burden to the taxpayers. No welfare, no food stamps, no health care, or other government assistance programs. Any burden will be deported.

7. Foreigners can invest in this country, but it must be an amount at least equal to 40,000 times the daily minimum wage.

8. If foreigners come here and buy land... options will be restricted. Certain parcels including waterfront property are reserved for citizens naturally born into this country.

9.. Foreigners may have no protests; no demonstrations, no waving of a foreign flag, no political organizing, no bad-mouthing our president or his policies. These will lead to deportation.

10. If you do come to this country illegally, you will be actively hunted &, when caught, sent to jail until your deportation can be arranged. All assets will be taken from you.

Too strict?

The above laws are the current immigration laws of MEXICO !!!

These sound fine to me, NOW, how can we get these laws to be America's immigration laws??

WAKE UP, AMERICA - we are about to lose our country!

SPELLING & GRAMMER COULD HELP

In a Catholic elementary school test, kids were asked questions about the Old and New Testaments.

The following are the children's uncorrected answers.

1. In the first book of the Bible, Guinnessis, God got tired of creating the world so he took the Sabbath off.
2. Adam and Eve were created from an apple tree. Noah's wife was Joan of Ark. Noah built an ark and the animals came on in pears.
- 3.. Lot's wife was a pillar of salt during rthe day, but a ball of fire during the night.
4. The Jews were a proud people and throughout history rgey had trouble with unsympathetic genitals.
- 5.Sampson was a strongman who let himself be led astray by a jezebel like Delilah.
6. Sampson slayed the Philistines with the axe of the apostles.
7. Moses led the Jews to the Red sea where they made unleavened bread which is bread without any ingredients.
8. The Egyptians were all drowned in the dessert. Afterwards Moses went up to Mount Cyanide to get the ten commandments.
9. The first commandment was when Eve told Adam to eat the apple.
10. The seventh commandment is thou shalt not admit adultery.
11. Moses died before he reached Canada then Joshua led the Hebrews in

- the battle of Geritol.
12. The greatest miracle in the Bible is when Joshua told his son to stand still and he obeyed him.
 13. David was a king who was killed when he played the liar. He fought thge Finkelsteins, a race of people who lived in Biblical times.
 14. Solomon, one of Davids sons, had 300 wives and porcupines.
 15. When Mary heard she was the mother of Jesus, she sang the Magna Carta.
 16. When the three wise guys from the east side arrived they found Jesus in the manager.
 18. St. Johm the blacksmith dumped water on Jesus head.
 19. Jesus enunciated the Golden Rule which says to do unto others before they do unto you.
 - He also explained a man doth not live by sweat alone.
 20. It was a miracle when Jesus rose from the dead and managed to get the tombstone off the entrance.
 21. The people who followed the Lord were called the 12 decibels.
 22. The epistles were the wives of the apostles.
 23. One of the oppossums was St. Matthew who was also a taximan.
 24. St. Paul cavorted to Christianity. He preached holy acromony which is another name for marraige.
 25. Christians have only one spouse. This is called monotony.

GOD LOVES DRUNK PEOPLE

A man and his wife were awakened at 3:00 am by a loud pounding on the door. The man gets up and goes to the door where a drunken stranger, standing in the pouring rain, is asking for a push. "Not a chance," says the husband, "it is 3:00 in the morning!" He slams the door and returns to bed. "Who was that?" asked his wife. "Just some drunk guy asking for a push," he answers. "Did you help him?" she asks. "No, I did not, it is 3:00 in the morning and it is pouring rain out there!" "Well, you have a short memory," says his wife. "Can't you remember about three months ago when we broke down, and those two guys helped us?

I think you should help him, and you should be ashamed of yourself! God loves drunk people too." The man does as he is told, gets dressed, and goes out into the pouring rain. He calls out into the dark, "Hello, are you still there?" "Yes," comes back the answer. "Do you still need a push?" calls out the husband. "Yes, please!" comes the reply from the dark. "Where are you?" asks the husband. "Over here on the swing set," replied the drunk.

A MATURE LADY Lady gets pulled over for speeding...

Lady: Is there a problem, Officer?
Officer: Ma'am, you were speeding.
Lady: Oh, I see.
Officer: Can I see your license please?
Lady: I'd give it to you but I don't have one.
Officer: Don't have one?
Lady: Lost it, 4 years ago for drunk driving.
Officer: I see...Can I see your vehicle registration papers please..
Lady: I can't do that.
Officer: Why not?
Lady: I stole this car.
Officer: Stole it?
Lady: Yes, and I killed and hacked up the owner.
Officer: You what?
Lady: His body parts are in plastic bags in the trunk if you want to see. The Officer looks at the woman and slowly backs away to his car and calls for back up. Within minutes 5 police cars circle the car. A senior officer slowly approaches the car, clasping his half drawn gun.
Officer 2: Ma'am, could you step out of your vehicle please!The woman steps out of her vehicle.

Lady: Is there a problem sir?
Officer 2: One of my officers told me that you have stolen this car and murdered the owner.
Lady: Murdered the owner?
Officer 2: Yes, could you please open the trunk of your car, please. The woman opens the trunk, revealing nothing but an empty trunk..
Officer 2: Is this your car, ma'am?
Lady: Yes, here are the registration papers. The officer is quite stunned.
Officer 2: One of my officers claims that you do not have a driving license. The woman digs into her handbag and pulls out a clutch purse and hands it to the officer. The officer examines the license. He looks quite puzzled.
Officer 2: Thank you ma'am, one of my officers told me you didn't have a license, that you stole this car, and that you murdered and hacked up the owner.
Lady: Bet the liar told you I was speeding, too.

NO SENSE OF HUMOR

Our teacher asked us what our favorite animal was, and I said, "Fried chicken." She said I wasn't funny, but she couldn't have been right, everyone else in the class laughed. My parents told me to always be truthful and honest, and I am. Fried chicken is my favorite animal. I told my dad what happened, and he said my teacher was probably a member of PETA. He said they love animals very much. I do, too. Especially chicken, pork and beef. Anyway, my teacher sent me to the principal's office. I told him what happened, and he laughed too. Then he told me not to do it again. The next day in class my teacher asked me what my favorite live animal was I told her it was chicken.

She asked me why, just like she'd asked the other children. So I told her it was because you could make them into fried chicken. She sent me back to the principal's office again. He laughed, and told me not to do it again. I don't understand. My parents taught me to be honest, but my teacher doesn't like it when I am. Today, my teacher asked us to tell her what famous person we admire most. I told her, "Colonel Sanders".

Guess where I am now...

AND THE CHICKEN SAYS . . . My favorite animal is fried teachers, So there!
